

The wedding procession up the rocky peninsula/island to reach the tiny chapel of Aghios Ioannis is one of the most glorious scenes of the 'Mamma Mia!' blockbuster, filmed in Skopelos as well as Skiathos! And you too can create your very own script for your magical day. The scene depicted 'inside' the chapel did not actually take place at Aghios Ioannis but on a replica set built for that purpose at Pinewood Studios, UK. The one in Skopelos is truly minute and only Greek Orthodox couples can marry inside Aghios Ioannis. What we can arrange instead is a lovely civil ceremony outside this pretty chapel. One thing you must remember is that if you have opted for the outdoor setting on the cliff top there are about 220 steps to reach this amazing wedding location! Get someone to carry your 'heels' and change into them (if you so wish) once you've made it to the very top in comfy shoes. And if you feel like bursting into an ABBA song half-way along the way... no one will stop you fulfil your dream. If you don't fancy the walk uphill, your ceremony can be arranged at the bottom of the rock. The concrete platform can be decorated as you wish and you still have wonderful sea views.
